COMING SOON

We are pleased to offer to the market this stunning two bedroom end of terraced cottage situated in Turnchapel, Plymstock. The property is currently undergoing a full renovation and the transformation in place is most spectacular. With an expected completion date of 22 November 2021, the home will have a bespoke and quirky layout arranged over three floors. The ground floor will consist of a double bedroom, utility room and modern shower room. The middle floor comprises an open plan kitchen living area with stunning views across the river Plym. The top floor boasts an immaculate family bedroom with en suite whilst retaining the breath-taking views across the water. The cottage is complete with a contemporary front garden fit with composite decking and patio. EPC: TBC.
