The Green, Kingsand, Torpoint, Cornwall, PL10

Nestled in the heart of Kingsand, this enchanting former Victorian meeting hall has been lovingly restored, seamlessly blending historic charm with modern comfort. The residence boasts three spacious bedrooms, each thoughtfully designed to offer both luxury and tranquillity. Original features, such as grand arched windows, exposed wooden beams, and intricate mouldings, have been meticulously preserved, allowing the rich history of the building to shine through. With its elegant period details and inviting ambiance, this unique home offers a rare opportunity to experience Victorian grandeur in a picturesque village setting.

The historic fishing village of Kingsand, which is on the Rame Peninsula opposite Plymouth sound in southeast Cornwall, is known locally as "Cornwall's Forgotten Corner". There are local shopping facilities close-knit community. There is a sandy beach less than 50 yards away and Mount Edgecumbe Country Park adjoins the village.
